

November 3, 2008

Saturday marked the first annual Jersey Faceoff held at Bentleys in Newark NJ. In attendance were 24 highly skilled competitors playing the New Benej tabletop game with great intensity and enthusiasm. The event attracted players from Montreal, New England (MA & RI), Upstate NY, Manhattan, Staten Island, Long Island, and New Jersey. It was covered by MSG and in general had great exposure!

The format of this event started with a 24 man field seeded into three divisions. This resulted in 8 man round robins with standings posted at the end of the round. Those standings created three 8 person peer group divisions: Gold (Top 8) Silver (Middle 8) and Bronze (Bottom 8). Because of the format, there is no final standings for the tournament overall, but rather standings 1-8 per medal division.

The Gold bracket was hotly contested by table hockey legends Kenny Dubois and Steve Bernstein. The surprising winner of the division emerged however from the upstate NY contingent of Benej players in the form of Fraser Strain. Fraser rode the stick of his Monster right defensemen for an efficient, hard fought win over "The Stein". Despite his third place showing, Kenny Dubois showed all in attendance the absolute savant like skills he possesses, and was the picture of class and composure all day long. The Gold bracket was filled with remarkable talent including designer and founder of TableHockey, Rick Benej.

The Silver bracket lead by actor and musician Felix Van Dijk and ATHA VP Operations Anthony Pizzo, was another battle ground of take no prisoner theatrics. The ultimate winner once again emerged from the background in the form of long time Benej player Peter Terrerri. Peter, following the same battle plan as Frazier, continued to keep his opponents off balance with devastating blasts from outside the blue line. He battled the championship match against Eric Vaillancourt hailing from a large Benej league in Montreal. The closing match was appreciated by all those watching as it was characterized by quickness, finesse, and aggression! Shot making was simply phenomenal.

The Bronze bracket resulted in another classic battle between the diminutive Don Poirer from RI against the long reach of Luc Bosse from Montreal. Once again the play was fast and furious. Luc prevailed at the end of the day, and also enjoyed a balanced attack, utilizing his strong defensemen strategically to tally the deciding points.

Attached to this note, are the final stats, which include:

- Round Robin divisional game scores and position scoring.
- Medal round game scores and position scoring.
- Overall Final Standings by round robin results and medal bracket standings.
- Overall position scoring stats by individual competitor.

Joe Pizzo, The Cooz, and Pete Mcquaid

The ATHA was formed in 1992 to promote fun, sportsmanship, and competition. Situated in Central NJ, South Jersey, Manhattan, and Staten Island NY, its members share a common love of the sport of tablehockey and the elite Benej hockey games. We are actively looking for players of all ages to play and enjoy the great comraderie and spirit we enjoy.

The Jersey Faceoff is the first open tournament sponsored by the ATHA in partnership with Rick Benej and TableHockey. We hope to bring this event annually to interested players, as well help grow and support league play through tournament organization. We would love to see a three event tour on the Benej game.

We would once again like to congratulate our winners, Fraser Strain, Peter Terrerri, and Luc Bosse. They are pictured below with Bonzini, Anthony Pizzo, and Rick Benej.

Thanks again to everyone for your attendance, your great attitudes, and your pursuit of the “perfect” game.

We will see you all again next year at Jersey Faceoff 2009

From the Point,
Bonzini
